
GHP 2012 | DANCE | AUDITIONS

At the GHP Dance auditions, you will:

1. Take a knowledge test at the audition. The dance knowledge test consists of questions from the areas of ballet, modern and jazz.
2. Show evidence of dance technical ability. Dance educators will conduct three 20-minute classes in ballet, modern, and jazz dance at the audition. You are to dress in leotards and stirrup or footless tights. Bring ballet shoes and jazz shoes.
3. Be prepared to perform a choreography of one minute (or less) in either ballet, modern or jazz. NO TAP! You must furnish the accompaniment on either an audio cassette tape or music CD. A cassette tape/CD player will be provided. Judgment will be based on the performance, not the choreography. This one-minute piece should include two types of turns and two types of leaps. It should not include props, costumes, gymnastic stunts, or singing.
4. Answer carefully prepared questions presented by the interviewers to determine your interests, work habits, career plans, and knowledge of dance. You do not need to change clothes for the interview.

NOTE: There will be morning, midday, and afternoon auditions. Auditions are assigned to candidates considering distance and convenience as much as possible. BE PROMPT!
